

IELTS BY KINJAL

Kinjal Kunjadiya

Content :

1. Introduction
2. General Description
3. Technologies Used
4. Application Code
5. Specific Requirements
6. Design

1. Introduction :

- International English Language Testing System
- Global testing method for English
- IELTS application
- Accepted by over 9000 organizations and more than 135 countries
- Gives information about all the modules
- Exam format, Calculate Score, Tips
- Utilized without a permit

2. General Description :

- Time
 - 3 Hours for Listening, Reading and Writing
 - 30 minutes for Speaking one
- Pencil and Paper based exam
- Students can use

3. Technologies Used :

- Backend :
 - Java
- Frontend :
 - XML (Extensible Markup Language)

4. Application Code :

- Layout :
 - Linear Layout
 - Constraint Layout
 - Relative Layout
- Elements :
 - Button
 - Text View
 - Image View
- View :
 - Card View

5. Specific Requirements :

- Install the app through apk file
- Interact the screen
- See all the modules
- Share the application
- Easy usable
- Reduce memory consumption

6. Design :

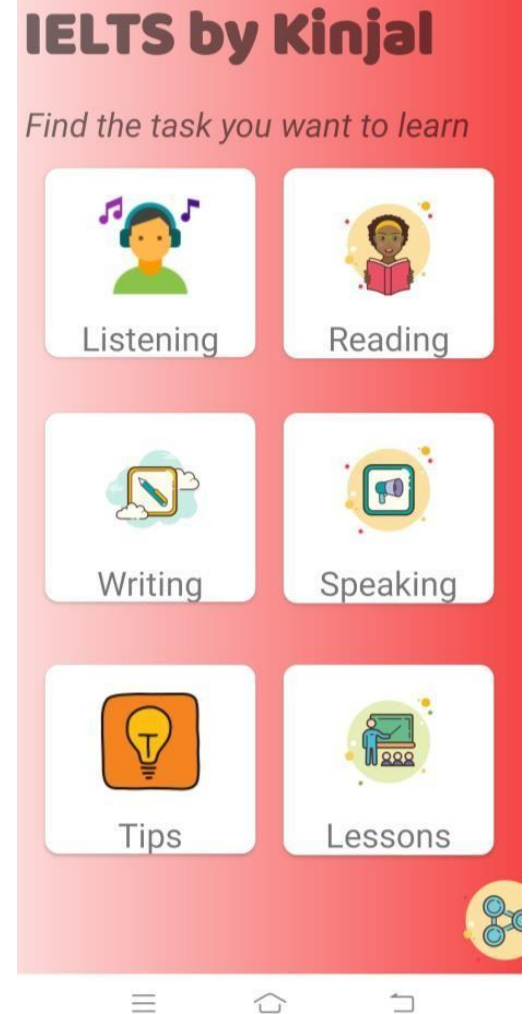

6.1 Logo :

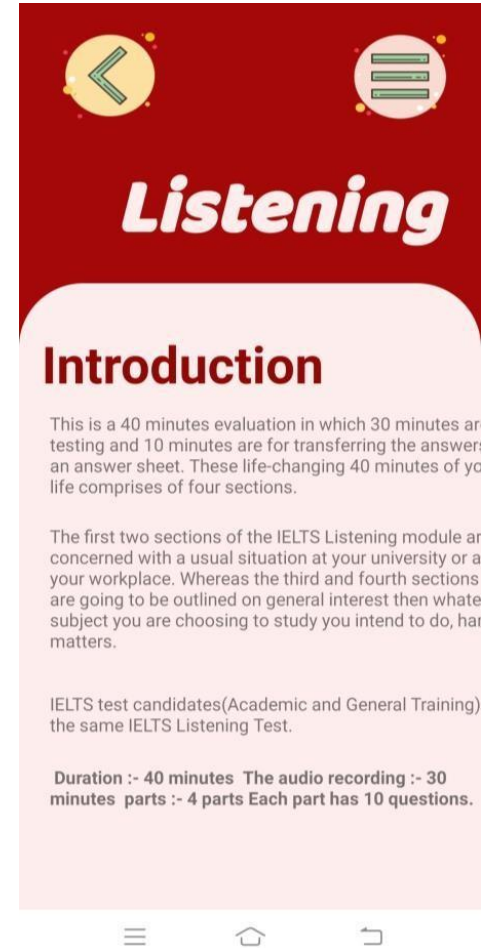

6.2 Splash Screen :

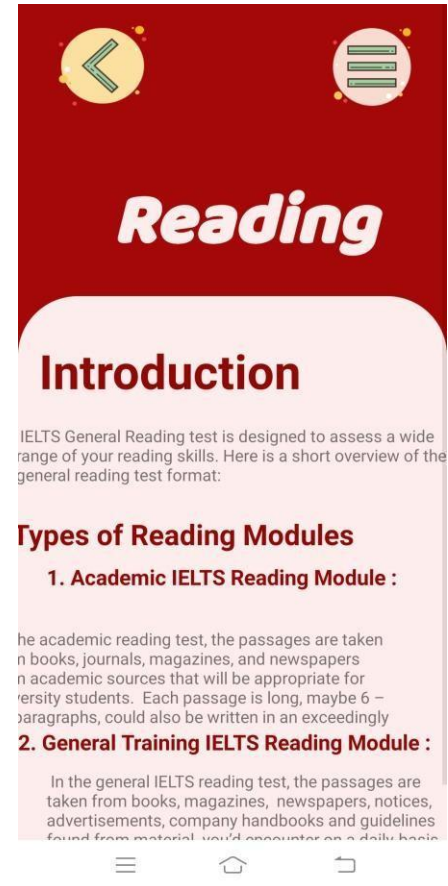

6.3 Main Screen :

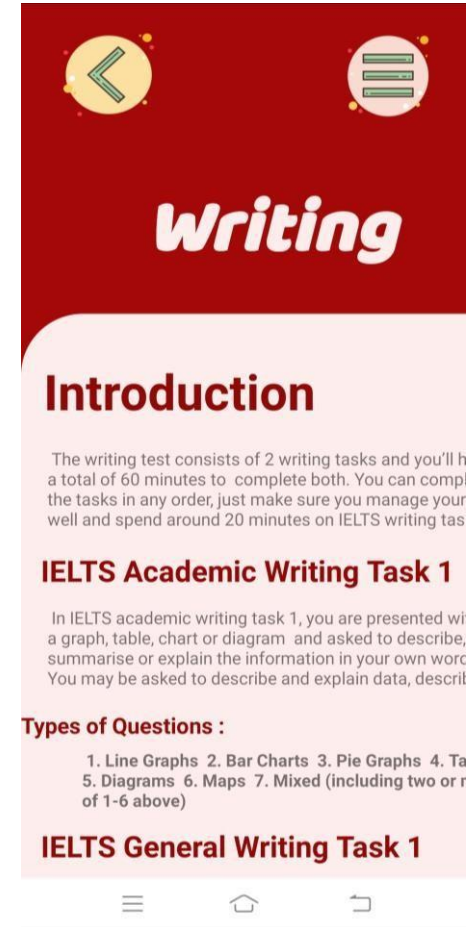

6.4 Listening Page :

6.5 Reading Page :

6.6 Writing Page :

6.7 Speaking Page :

Speaking

Introduction

This page contains everything you need to know and the essential skills for a high score in IELTS speaking. The IELTS speaking test can be a little intimidating at first, especially because you'll be tested live in front of your examiner. Due to this live format, finding free speaking topics with sample responses can be difficult. The speaking test lasts about 15 minutes, consisting of 3 parts. Please note the speaking topics for Greeting and Part 1 are the same, so they are considered only 1 part, but we have separated them for your convenience.

Part 1 :

4-5 minutes >> You will be asked questions on familiar topics, like your hobbies, family, where you are from, where your hometown/city is like, etc.

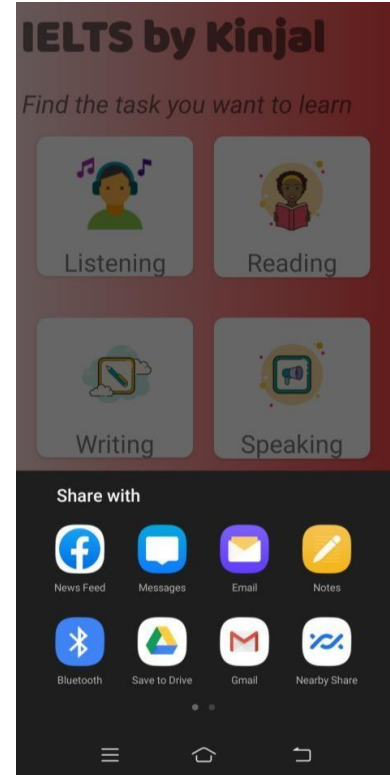

Part 2 :

3-4 minutes >> First, the examiner will give you one minute to think about the question and make notes. Next, you will

6.8 Tips Page :

6.9 Share :

Thank You

Have a beautiful rest of the day